

Electro-Technical Training for Marine Engineers

This course aims to enhance Marine Engine Officers' knowledge, understanding, and skills in the operation, maintenance, and repairs of electro-technical equipment onboard ships.

Training Outcome/s:

After the training, participants must be able to:

- Maintain electrical safety onboard ships
- Maintain the operation of electrical equipment
- Maintain the operation of instrumentation, automation, and alarm systems
- Maintain the operation of electrical power generation and distribution systems
- Maintain the operation of electrical ancillaries

Entry Standard/s:

All Engine Officers