

Engine Officer Competency Evaluation for Operational Level

Aims to provide deck officers with knowledge, understanding and practical skills in ship. This evaluation program aims to determine the competency of Operational Level Engineers in engine watchkeeping in order to establish their current competency and or eligibility for promotion.

Evaluation Outcome/s

After the evaluation, participants must be able to:

- Strengths and areas for improvement of the participants.
- Recommended training to enhance the knowledge and skills of participants as identified for improvement.

Entry Standard/s

Marine Engineer Officers at the operational level.