

Engine Room Familiarization

The course aims to provide engine cadets with an understanding and familiarization with shipboard organization and arrangement of various engine room machines and equipment and basic knowledge of engine room operation before they embark on their respective vessels.

Training Outcome/s:

After the training, the participants must be familiar with the ship's organization and engine room arrangement including operation.

Qualifications:

Any personnel who will be assigned in engine operation.