

Introduction to Exhaust Gas Cleaning Systems

This training is designed to provide updating training for Marine Engineering Officers to enhance their knowledge, skills and safe working practices in the Maritime industry using best practices in part of air pollution prevention requirements of MARPOL 73/78 Annex VI Regulations and Amendments including Restrictions for discharging of wash water from exhaust gas cleaning systems.