

Marine High Voltage Safety Awareness

The course aims to provide engine prospective officers and engine ratings a familiarization on the hazards and precautions required in the operation and maintenance of shipboard power systems rated above 1,000 volts.

Training Outcome/s:

After the training, the participants must be able to:

- Conduct high voltage risk assessment.
- Identify shipboard high-voltage safety procedures.

Entry Standard/s

Engine Prospective Officers and Engine Ratings