

Ship Handling and Maneuvering for Officers

This training program aims to provide deck officers with knowledge, understanding, and practical skills in ship handling techniques to safely maneuver various types and sizes of ships in various conditions.

Training Outcome/s:

After the training, the participants must be able to maneuver and handle the ship in various conditions.

Qualifications:

Marine Deck Officers.