Train the Trainer for Online Training

This webinar aims to provide educators and trainers the necessary knowledge and competencies in facilitating training in an online environment by utilizing a learning management system and video communication platform.

Training Outcome/s

After this webinar, participants must be able to:

- Use Zoom as a video communication and media sharing platform.
- Use Schoology for managing learning resources and assessments.
- Perform online teaching demonstration.